About Publication Department :

Established in 1952, Prasaraanga in the Publication and Extension wing of the University. Its Extension (Extramural) wing conducts Vyasanga Vistarana or extension lecture campus in the mofussil areas coming under the jurisdiction of the University. It also arranges Seminars and Symposia, Endowment and Special Lectures.

The main objective of this wing is to carry the knowledge accumulated at the University to the door steps of the common people. The publication division publishes books (theses, research works, foundation and special lectures, edited classics, language text books for Degree classes, extension lecture booklets etc.) and five journals in (science, Social Science and Humanities in English and Karnataka Bharati, and Vidyarthi Bharati in Kannada).

The publication wing has now emerged as one of the largest publishers in Karnataka. It has published nearly two thousand five hundred titles, some of which have gone into several editions. These have been applauded by scholars and laymen alike. There are five areas in which it has made a distinctive name.

- 1) Publication of pocket-size booklets on various useful subjects (the number now crossing the 570 mark which is a record for any University in India) for the benefit of common people.
- 2) Publication of books in Kannada and English on Vachana literature, a distinct form of prose-poems composed by Shiva-Sharana saints who have heralded social and religious revolution in Karnataka. A few of the vachanas are translated into Hindi, French, German, Marathi and Tamil in book form. There are nearly 165 titles belonging to this category.
- 3) Publication in the field of Kannada folklore especially in tow series Jeevana Jokali and Janapada Sahitya Darshana, the latter having its 44th volume.
- 4) Ph.D. Thesis and other Research publications have crossed 70 by Prasaraanga and 75 by other publishers with UGC financial assistance.
- 5) Under Special Lecture series 65 for Titles have been published so far.

The Extra-mural or Extension wing can probably boast of conducting highest number of lecturers in the rural areas compares to any university in Karnataka or elsewhere. Upto March 2021 it has conducted 521 Extension Lecture campus and has arranged more than 2500 lectures of which some 570 are already published in the form of low priced booklets.

The two types of activities of the Prasaraanga mentioned above are guided by two separate committees constituted by the Syndicate of this University, the former by the Extension and Extra Mural Board and the latter by the Publication Board presided over by the Vice-Chancellor.

Future Plan :

1. The Publication unit is planning to publish 100 titles in various topics such as vachana literature, folk literature and criticism.
2. The unit is also planning to sell books worth Rs.10,000=00 to the colleges coming under the jurisdictions of Karnatak University to enhance the revenue of the University.
3. The Unit is contemplating to have monthly book exhibitions in the surrounding colleges of Hubli-Dharwad.
